

Speaker's Profile

Dr Thayaharan Subramaniam
Emergency Physician
MD (University Gadjah Mada, Indonesia),
Mmed Emergency Medicine (University of Malaya, Malaysia)
Fellowship in Emergency Global Health
Sciences (EDGHS)

Dr Thayaharan Subramaniam is an Emergency Physician currently practicing in Hospital Selayang. He graduated from Gadjah Mada University in 2008 and completed his postgraduate programme in Emergency Medicine from University of Malaya.

He is among the pioneers in Malaysia to have completed the Advanced Disaster Life Support course from America and received certification from the then Deputy Minister of Health and is currently an instructor who conducts local training in Hospital Selayang for participants from all over the country. He is also an instructor for Wilderness Advanced Life support under Wilderness Medical Association. He is also a trainer for Basic Life Support, Advanced Life Support, Trauma Life Support, Triage Course, HAZMAT life support, and CBRNE simulation under the MOH.