

CV DR. RANJINI SIVAGANABALAN

Dr. Ranjini Sivaganabalan
Consultant Emergency Physician, Special Interest in Clinical Toxicology
Head of Department
Emergency and Trauma Department
Hospital Shah Alam
Shah Alam, Selangor,
Malaysia

Education:

- 1) Masters Emergency Medicine: Universiti Sains Malaysia, Kubang Kerian, Kelantan
Graduated: 2006
- 2) Special area of interest training in Clinical Toxicology: Hong Kong Poison Information Centre, United Christian Hospital, Hong Kong
Duration: 1.8.2012 - 31.1.2013

Publications and poster presentations:

- 1) Networking for antivenom- poster presentation for the 10th International Scientific Congress of the Asia Pacific Association for Medical Toxicology(APAMT) 2011 in Penang, Malaysia.
- 2) Pericardiocentesis as the sole modality of treatment for pericardial tamponade- poster presentation for the 15th International Conference on Emergency Medicine 2014 in Hong Kong.
- 3) One Stop Crisis Centre: Policy and Guidelines for Hospitals, Ministry of Health Malaysia published in 2015. Drafting Member.
- 4) Organophosphate poisoning in an urban Malaysian hospital: what we have learnt- poster presentation for the 15th International Scientific Congress of the Asia Pacific Association for Medical Toxicology(APAMT) 2016 in Singapore.
- 5) Guideline on the Management of Snakebite, Ministry of Health Malaysia published in 2017. Technical Committee.
- 6) Retrospective Observational Study of Organophosphate Poisoning in an Urban Malaysian Hospital; Journal of Clinical Toxicology 2018
- 7) Poisoning Chapter; Pediatric Protocol 4th Edition, Malaysia
- 8) Mass Casualty Incident: Ammonia Gas Leak at an Ice Plant- poster presentation for the 19th International Conference on Emergency Medicine 2019 in Seoul, Korea.