

---

DR WARREN LEE, SINGAPORE

DR. WARREN LEE'S PAEDIATRICS GROWTH & DIABETES CENTRE

Dr Warren Lee is a pediatric endocrinologist in private practice but continues to spend 30% of his time working and teaching in KK Hospital. He was trained in Singapore and did his endocrine fellowship at the Royal Children's Hospital in Melbourne. He was founding head of the Endocrinology Service in KK Children's Hospital from 2001-2006, then helped to establish Adolescent Medicine in KKH and NUH and was Chair of the MOH Advisory Committee on Adolescent Health before leaving for private practice in 2008, He was President of the Diabetic Society of Singapore from 1996-2004, He was a member of the Executive Board of the International Diabetes Federation from 1996-2006, and Regional Chair of the IDF Western Pacific Region from 2002-2003. Dr Lee was also a Member of Parliament for Sembawang GRC in Singapore from 2001-2006. He is an active member of the International Society for Paediatric and Adolescent Diabetes (ISPAD) has continued to teach doctors and allied health professionals about pediatric Type 1 and Type 2 diabetes in seminars and workshops in diverse places such as Tanzania, Uganda, India, Bangladesh, Indonesia, Mexico, China and others.

