

Professor Shin Hye Kim

Assistant Professor, Department of Pediatrics, Sanggye Paik Hospital, Inje University College of Medicine, Seoul, Korea

Professor Kim is an Assistant Professor, Department of Pediatrics, Sanggye Paik Hospital, Inje University College of Medicine.

She graduated from the college of Medicine at CHA University in 2003 and completed her clinical training at CHA University Bundang Medical Center in 2007 with honor.

Professor Kim has over 16 years of experience in the field - over 3 years of which have been spent at CHA University Bundang Medical Center and over 10 year of which have been spent at Sanggye Paik Inju university hospital. She specializes in pediatric endocrine, growth disease, pediatric diabetes mellitus and obesity.

Professor Kim has more than 40 published peer-reviewed articles and her main research interests are pediatric metabolism disease and endocrine characteristics disease. She is also an active member of many national academic societies in the field of pediatric endocrinology.

